Overview

Dear Jack Twite,

Here at Runbeck Election Services (Runbeck), we are solely focused on elections, dedicating all our resources to our election partners and the advancement of election solutions. Since our establishment in 1972, and we have been an active participant in the growth and modernization of the electoral process. Now, 50 years later, we are trusted by jurisdictions across the nation to deliver customized election products and services, reaching 70 million+ registered voters each cycle. When it comes to the election industry, no one can compete with our team's experience in the scale of solutions, years of operation, and comprehensive expertise.

Conceptualized in 2001 from a simple desire to solve how to print on-demand accurately and efficiently, Runbeck has developed the Sentio System into an integrated software and hardware solution used nationwide. As America's Election Partner®, Runbeck is poised to help in this transition with the implementation of our revolutionary hardware solutions, which are designed specifically for the unique challenges election environments experience.

Our Field Service Managers are strategically located across the country to support our partners. Our team understands processes, procedures, laws, products, and equipment. This group of subject matter experts will assist our partners with hardware installation, background knowledge and of course, training, on how to use all of our offered products. We are committed to giving our partners an unbeatable level of service and support to expertly plan and execute your election process.

We understand it takes extreme focus, unlike any other industry, to reach perfection. The election industry demands it. It is our hope that our elections focus is reinforced and clearly reflected in every facet of our company and makes it clear that we take pride in Defending Democracy®.

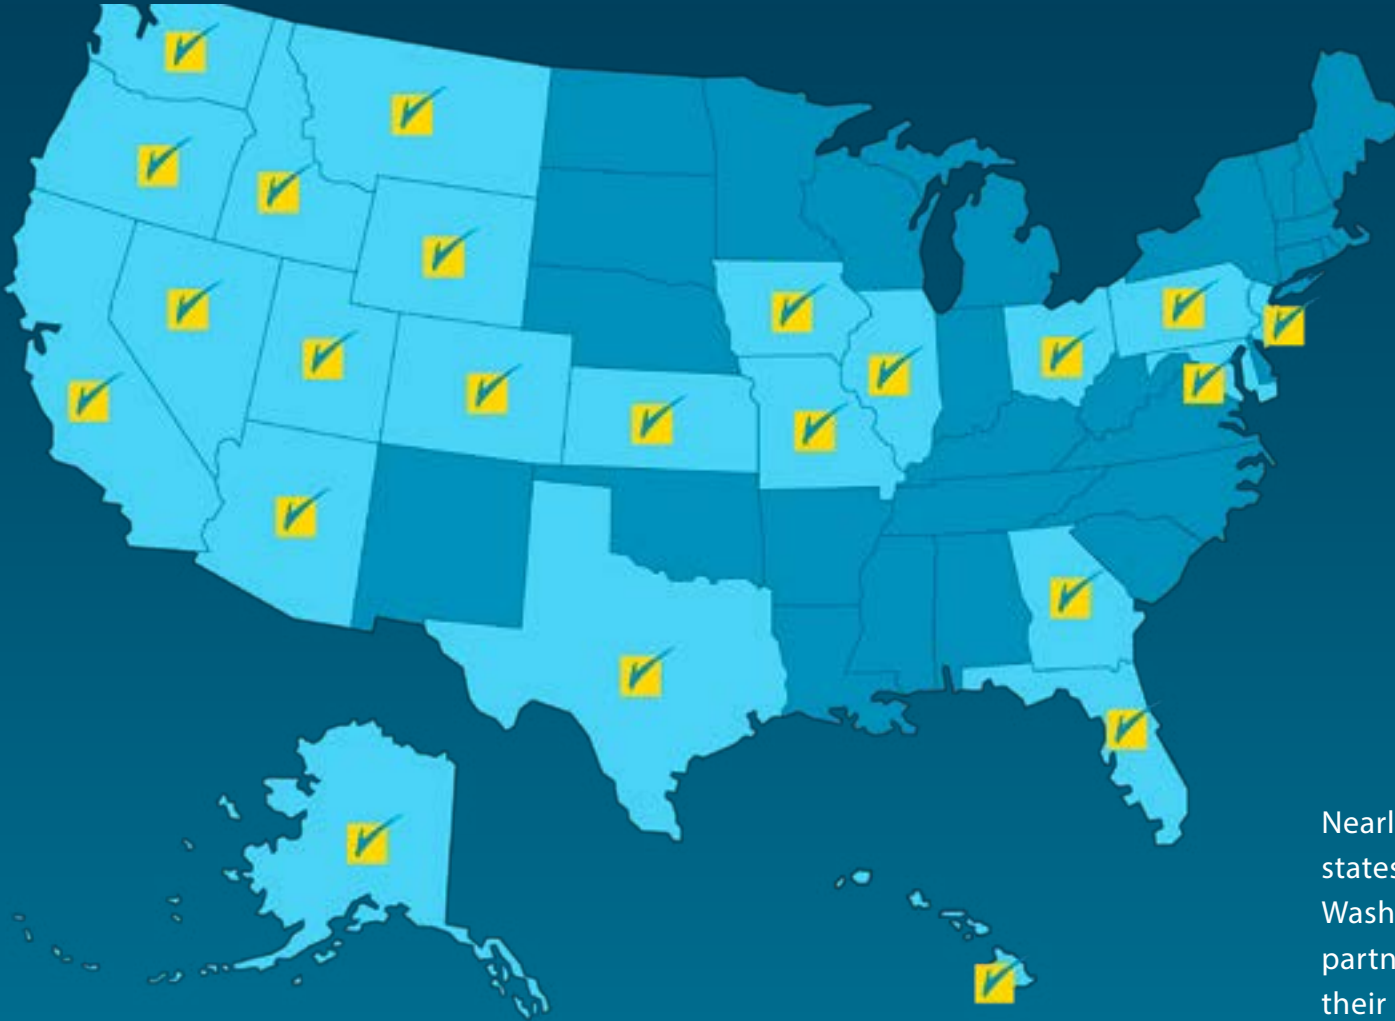

Sincerely,

Rizwan Fidai
Vice President of Sales
Runbeck Election Services, LLC.
